DENY FURTHER FEDERAL AID TO ILLINOIS

LEWIS FAILS IN HIS EFFORTS TO OBTAIN FUNDS

Cities And Counties Must Supply Relief Deficiency

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(P)—Illinois cities and counties tonight were faced with supplying the $10,000,000 relief deficiency for the first four months of the year after Governor Henry Horner was told that U. S. Senator J. Hamilton Lewis had been refused further direct federal aid at Washington.

Commenting on Works Progress Administrator Harry L. Hopkins' refusal of the senator's request, Chairman John C. Martin of the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission said: "So far as the federal government is concerned, it brings the picture."

Neither the governor nor Martin explained how the municipalities and counties would be expected to raise funds to supplement the state's present contribution of $2,000,000 a month. The governor said in his New Year's Day speech that cities and counties would have to contribute if the federal government refused.

Martin said that the relief commission had about $2,700,000 to apply to the $3,650,000 bill for January, and estimated that at least $2,000,000 will be required for each of the subsequent three months, in addition to the $2,000,000 produced by the sales and utility taxes.

Meanwhile, Leo M. Lyons, new executive secretary of the relief commission, said that further reductions in the administrative forces of the commission would be made next week. Following last week's layoff of 500 workers, Cook county's administrative force now stands at approximately 3,200 persons, he said.

Commenting on Gov. Horner's request that the Works Progress Administration take over more relief clients since no federal cash was forthcoming, Robert J. Dineen, WPA administrator, said:

"We will take all of the employable relief clients that the relief commission furnishes. We are not bound by the original quota of 183,500, but will take as many more as are given us."

Accountant Says "Marital Status" Is "Very Good"

New York, Jan. 2.—(P)—A $3,000-a-year accountant employed by the city's relief bureau answered "very good" to the query "What is your marital status?" on a routine questionnaire.

Borough President Lyons disclosed the answer today in commenting on the "superintelligence" of New York's relief employees.

Other answers to the same question were: "No," "stenographer," "typist," "ladies wear," "normal," and "chief adviser."

MAN PROVES TO HIS WIFE THAT HE IS AT CLUB

New York Orchestra Plays For Woman In Salt Lake

By Dale Harrison, Associated Press Staff Writer

New York, Jan. 2.—(P)—Under extraordinary circumstances, the telephone at a New York night club would hardly be called upon for a call to Salt Lake City, but anything can happen on New Year's Eve and it did.

Among the celebrities at the club (Onyx) was a gentleman who was having a "perfectly hilarious time" until about 11 P. M. when he suddenly became "remorseful." It had just been 11 P. M. when he was in Salt Lake City. His little wife was alone and lonesome, probably greeting the New Year with tears because he was absent.

"It's a shame," he announced to anyone who wanted to listen. "Here I am having a grand time and the little woman is all in a dither back home in Salt Lake City."

So he decided to call her up and explain that he was having a grand time and wished she were here.

From the office of the club he placed his call and his wife answered; but when he tried to tell her where he was she expressed sharp disbelief. She told him that she was morally certain that he was at some private party behaving like a heathen.

"I'll prove it to you," he cried, as the long distance tolls mounted.

He dashed back to the dance floor and to the bandstand where Reilly and Parley, the co-maestros, were about to launch their boys into melody.

"Come with me," he insisted, "and bring the whole orchestra. I want you to play a piece for my wife on in Salt Lake City."

Reilly and Parley, finally convinced, and the entire orchestra crowded to the small office where the gentleman from Salt Lake City was talking to his wife.

"I'm going to prove I'm at the (Onyx) club," he shouted triumphantly. "You know that song 'The Music Goes Round and Round'? Well, the fellows who wrote it, Reilly and Parley, are right here with their band, and they're going to play it."

And that was how it happened that the wife in Salt Lake City received a personal playing of "The Music Goes Round and Round" early New Year's morning—by special permission and co-operation of the composers.

TOMMY TOUTY IS ARRESTED IN CHICAGO

Officials Plan Quick Trial For Last Of "Terrible" Gang

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(P)—The law claimed a victory in a race with death today with the capture of Tommy Touty, last of the "Terrible" gang, reportedly doomed from an incurable disease.

Without firing a shot six squads of local and federal officers, seized the 44-year-old founder of the gang once known as "Al Capone's head ache," in bed at his hideaway apartment on the north side.

Palsied from his ailment—variously reported as tuberculosis and cancer—Touty tremblingly obeyed when the officers awakened him with the command: "come out with your hands up." He did not even raise his hand toward the pistol he had nearby.

Because of his precarious physical condition, authorities began at once to arrange for a speedy trial to guarantee he would serve some prison term before his malady takes its toll. They indicated he probably would be taken after a "show up" appearance here to Minneapolis. Federal prosecutors there said they would institute removal proceedings at once on an indictment charging he led the gang which robbed a mail truck of between $40,000 and $50,000 there two years ago this month.

For thirty months Touty had been sought, among the many crimes in which authorities suspected him of complicity was the $103,000 mail robbery by his gang at Charlotte, N. C., in 1933.

Regarded as one of the most dangerous mobsters who rose to affluence during the prohibition era, Touty had been living in a $37.50 a month apartment with his family at 3130 Palmer Square on the northwest side since Oct. 24.

Word that his arrest was imminent flashed prematurely from police headquarters several nights ago but the show-up proved false.

Touty's wife, Jessie, two daughters, Eleanor 22 and Mrs. Eddie Ryan, 24, and the latter's husband were taken in custody along with him today.

Mrs. Touty at first refused to halt the officers when the raiders reached her door by demanding:

"Have you a search warrant?"

"Yes," replied Lieut. Thomas Kelly. "This fear bomb."

At the federal building to where he was rushed for questioning, Touty asserted he had retired from crime years ago and declared:

"All I'm trying to do is get my health back."

Officers found in the apartment little negotiable evidence of the thousands of dollars of bootlegging profits, racket tribute and robberies that the Toutys were credited with perpetrating.

With Tommy in custody five of the six brothers-in-crime were accounted for. Roger, most notorious of the family, is serving a 99-year term in Joliet, Ill., prison for kidnapping of John Factor; James was killed in the early days of the gang; Joseph and John died in battles with Capone gangsters who tried unsuccessfully to "muscle" him out of the northwest Chicago and suburban area domain; and though Eddie has been reported a fugitive from the law, other underworld information has had him dead.

Ready to Call Congress to Order

Here's how Joseph W. Byrnes, speaker of the House of Representatives, will look when he steps to the rostrum to gavel the Congressmen to order at the opening of Congress today.

Liberty League Reports Expenditures as Large as Major Political Parties

TUBE ENABLES HUMAN EYE TO SEE IN DARK

Man's Oldest Dream Has Apparently Been Realized

By Melbourne Christensen, Associated Press Staff Writer

Washington, Jan. 2.—(P)—The American Liberty League, bi-partisan critic of the New Deal, today reported contributions and expenditures nearly as large as those of the two major political parties.

Reports of the Democratic and Republican National Committee and the league to the clerk of the House showed the three had received a total of nearly $1,500,000 and spent more than $1,000,000 in 1935.

The Democrats said they received $529,693 and spent $502,924 for a 1935 balance of $27,769, but they still have unpaid obligations from previous campaigns amounting to $401,315.

The Republicans reported contributions of $474,454 and expenditures of $199,166, with a fat Jan. 1 balance of $275,288. Of the contributions, $338,428 was received from Sept. 1 to Dec. 31.

Receipts of $432,275 in loans and contributions during 1935 was reported by the Liberty League, which said it spent $569,973 in salaries, clerical hire, traveling and office expenses, including $31,000 to President Roosevelt for salary, travel and incidental.

"Names high in the nation's business and industrial life studied the report of all three organizations. Major interest of political observers centered on the records of the Liberty League, for which the Du Pont family of Wilmington, Del., alone supplied $152,250 in loans and contributions."

The new tube was shown for the first time at a general meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science by its discoverers and inventors, Dr. V. K. Workykin and Dr. George A. Morton of the radio corporation of American laboratories.

They have realized one of man's oldest and apparently most impossible dreams—briefly they have taken beams of electrons and focused them just as the lens of the human eye focuses light. Like light, the electrons carry optical images.

The new tube was shown for the first time at a general meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science by its discoverers and inventors, Dr. V. K. Workykin and Dr. George A. Morton of the radio corporation of American laboratories.

They have realized one of man's oldest and apparently most impossible dreams—briefly they have taken beams of electrons and focused them just as the lens of the human eye focuses light. Like light, the electrons carry optical images.

Then, inasmuch as the eye cannot see even focused electrons, the two scientists have made a mechanical retina which sends the electron images exactly as the retina of the eye sends images in light.

This mechanical retina is a round sheet of glass nine inches in diameter. Over it is spread a fluorescent chemical which converts the electron images into visible images in ordinary light.

The tube including its artificial retina is enclosed in a telescope about the size of a large camera. The telescope is pointed at objects in the usual manner. The observer looking into its receiving end sees the artificial retina and thereon the scene brought in on the invisible rays. This scene is greenish-black and white, without other colors. But is as sharp and distinct as visible light.

This first telescope is only a comparatively crude demonstration machine to show science that another "insoluble" problem has been solved.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT TO APPEAR IN PERSON BEFORE HOUSE, SENATE

MOTOR VEHICLE FATALITIES HIT ALL-TIME HIGH

Approximately 36,400 Persons Killed During 1935

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(P)—Motor vehicle fatalities reached a new all-time high of approximately 36,400 in 1935, the National Safety Council reported tonight.

The organization's final tabulations showed an increase in automobile accident deaths of about one per cent over the previous record of 36,101 in 1934.

To emphasize the enormity of the slaughter, statisticians pointed out the number of persons who perished in traffic mishaps last year would populate cities the size of Santa Barbara, Calif., or Orange, N. J.

But the council stated that due to the increase in the nation's population the death rate per 100,000 was about the same as in 1934—28.5. It also concluded the number of miles a motorist was able to travel without accident had increased because automobile registration advanced 4.2 per cent and gasoline consumption went up six per cent over 1934 in contrast to a rise of only one per cent in fatalities. Had crashes kept pace with the expansion in motoring, it calculated, the 1935 death roster would have ranged between 37,500 and 38,000.

States cited for reductions in deaths during the first 11 months of 1935 included: Illinois, 12.

Milwaukee won the safety honors for cities over 600,000 population with a death rate of 11.2 per 100,000. Providence, R. I., with a rate of seven, topped all municipalities in the 250,000-600,000 class.

The report was made on the second day of the campaign sponsored by the Council and aimed at reducing traffic deaths seven per cent in each of the next five years. Forty-two states, more than 100 cities and several hundred industrial concerns have enlisted in the drive to save 33,400 lives in the five-year period by safety efforts along education, engineering and law enforcement lines.

John Miller Is Surprised When Wife Has Twins

Oakland, Calif., Jan. 2.—(P)—You could have knocked John Miller over with a feather after he was told he was the father of twin boys.

Loretta, the wife of the unemployed cook, had kept secret her impending motherhood, fearing Miller would worry about expenses.

"I had no idea what was going on," exclaimed Miller. "My wife told me she was suffering from rheumatism and then said she was going to Los Angeles."

Nor would he even believe the reports until he went to the hospital and saw his sons, weighing three and four pounds respectively.

FIERY RETORTS EXCHANGED BY GOP, DEMOCRATS

Permanent Neutrality And Bonus Assume Top Rank

Washington, Jan. 2.—(P)—Political fireworks shot skyward on the eve of the new session of Congress tonight, illuminating issues and inquisition committees that probably will command public attention up to and possibly beyond national political conventions next summer.

As President Roosevelt consulted advisors on eleventh-hour insertions and deletions in his annual message on the "state of the union," Democrats and Republicans exchanged fiery retorts over the executive's plan to deliver it at an extraordinary joint session tomorrow night.

Permanent neutrality legislation and the yearly problem of the soldier's bonus meanwhile clearly assumed top rank among the concerns of the leaders. Newly arrived Democratic chiefs predicted, however, that an immediate payment measure would be framed to meet the president's proposal.

New investigations, including one of relief administration, also were projected, adding to the long list already under way. Plans for introducing measures of great import likewise were announced, covering more elaborate old age pensions, huge appropriations for rural electrification and farm relief.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic floor leader, was among the first today to protest against the charge of Chairman Henry P. Fletcher of the Republican national committee that the president's plan to deliver his opening message at night was bringing this constitutional privilege "down to the level of a political speech."

"I think this effort to make a mountain out of a molehill is rather absurd," the Arkansas senator asserted at his first pre-congress interview. "Of course the hour of nine o'clock was chosen for the purpose of giving the message full publicity," he conceded. "If anyone objects to that, he has the same right to do so that anyone else has to approve it."

Rep. Snell of New York, Republican house leader, applauded the Fletcher statement, saying the party chairman had "put the thing before the public in its proper light," and adding: "Everybody knows what this means."

Fletcher, who had demanded from broadcasting companies the privilege of replying to the president's message over the same radio facilities and at the same hour on a future date, was notified during the day by M. H. Aylesworth, vice chairman of the National Broadcasting company, that such facilities would be available to the Republicans "from time to time."

The president of the other chain, William S. Paley of the Columbia broadcasting system, flatly refused to accept what he termed "the principle that all broadcast activities of the government are to be on a mathematically balanced basis given the administration's opposition."

Speakers Byrnes also hit back at Fletcher. He contended the president had a complete right to indicate when he preferred to deliver his annual message.

In between outbursts, Democratic leaders concluded plans for formally opening the second session of the 74th congress tomorrow at noon.

VETERANS HAVE AGREED ON CASH BONUS MEASURE

Will Introduce Bill At Opening Session Of Congress Today

By Douglas B. Cornell, Associated Press Staff Writer

Washington, Jan. 2.—(P)—Leaders of three World War veterans' groups announced tonight that a cash bonus bill with their joint endorsement will be submitted to both houses when Congress convenes tomorrow.

The announcement said it will be introduced by Senator Clark (D-Mo.) and Representative Vinson (D-Kent.) and McNamara (D-Mass.) It would leave the method of financing immediate bonus payment up to the government.

A letter sent to each member of Congress, urging support for the measure said it would be known as the "American Legion-Veterans of Foreign Wars-Disabled American Veterans bill."

Other bonus developments of the day included:

A prediction by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the majority leader, that bonus legislation that will obtain "executive approval" will be passed promptly.

A meeting of 14 members of the House steering committee behind the Patten (D-Tex.) bill, at which they decided unanimously to back it "to final passage," although agreeing to modification should a majority decide to eliminate its provision for payment through $2,000,000,000 in new currency.

Announcement that Representative Scrugham (D-Nev.) would introduce a bill providing for payment in silver certificates and in certificates issued against "free and unallocated" treasury gold.

Although Patten tonight called another meeting of his steering committee for tomorrow, one committee member, who spoke privately because of political considerations, said of today's agreement:

"That action just taken inflates completely out of the picture. You can count on it that any bill that passes the House will provide no specific method of payment."

The veterans' announcement was made by National Commanders Ray Murphy of the Legion, which last year backed a bill by Representative Vinson which specified no payment method; James E. Van Zandt, of the V. F. W., which last year backed the Patten bill; and M. A. Harlan of the D. A. V.

Although the announcement said their bill would be introduced jointly in the House by Vinson and Patten, officials said this could be done only if each introduced identical bills. Senator Clark was en route to Washington when the announcement was made. He is expected late tonight.

LOUIS PIQUETT TO TAKE HIS CASE TO SUPREME COURT

Attorney Convicted For Harboring Van Meter Loses Fight

Chicago, Jan. 1.—(P)—Louis Piquett, first target in the government's campaign to eliminate lawyers it suspects of being criminal in fact as well as name, today elected to continue his fight against a two-year penitentiary term.

Shortly after the U. S. circuit court of appeals upheld his conviction on charges of harboring Dillinger, lawyer Homer Van Meter, Piquett's counsel disclosed he would carry the case to the United States supreme court if necessary.

"We expect to file a petition for a rehearing," said John Elliot Byrne, attorney for Piquett. "If that is denied, we will then appeal to the supreme court."

Piquett, free on $20,000 bond, could not be reached for comment.

He was indicted for harboring John Dillinger tried last January, he won acquittal on his plea that his relations with Dillinger were those of lawyer and client. Several months later he was convicted of harboring Dillinger's aide, Van Meter. He was sentenced to two years in prison and to pay a $10,000 fine.

In his appeal, Piquett argued he was tried for what amounted to one branch of the law.

The state supreme court was expected to make a decision in the disbarment case against Piquett at its February session. C. P. Dennis, secretary of the Chicago Bar Association, said the grievance committee had recommended the disbarment on the strength of Piquett's conviction for sheltering Van Meter.

Investigate Beer Party in Church New Year's Eve

Ridgeway, Ont., Jan. 2.—(P)—Provincial police, called by indignant church people, opened an investigation today into a New Year's beer party in the United Church at nearby Palmyra.

When the chairman of the church's official board, W. T. Street, visited the church today he found the pulpit smashed, collection plates broken and the pulpit Bible torn to bits.

The pulpit, carpets, pew seats and walls had been splashed with beer. The Bible's torn pages were strewn over the church aisle.

ESCAPES DEATH

Perth Amboy, N. J., Jan. 2.—(P)—Mrs. Mary Krasko, 26, is alive today because her heart is on the right side of her body.

The woman was shot early today when a revolver in the hands of her husband, Antoni, 21, accidentally was discharged during a New Year's celebration. The bullet penetrated her left breast.

Dr. Cyril Hunter said that if her heart had been on the normal side the gunshot wound might have caused instant death.

COMPOSER DIES

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(P)—Earl Burnett, 37, orchestra leader and composer of several hit tunes, died in Illinois Central hospital today. He had been ill since Christmas Eve with appendicitis.

Among his most successful tunes were "Do You Ever Think of Me?" "Leave Me With a Smile" and "Down Honolulu Way." He wrote lyrics for other hits.

Burnett was a native of Harrisburg, Pa. He was married but had no children.

Democrats Will Hold Meeting In Chicago Today

Cook County Men Plan To Consider Candidates For Governorship

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(P)—A call was issued today for a special meeting of the Cook county democratic committee to consider, among other things, candidates for the governorship.

Party chieftains said the meeting tomorrow in a loop (Morrison) hotel was expected to produce a formal indication of the stand the committee would take concerning a second term for Governor Henry Horner.

Final endorsement of candidates was not anticipated.

Among candidates who have been spoken of for the democratic nomination for governor were U. S. District Attorney Michael L. Igoe, Springfield democratic floor leader at Springfield; Bruce Campbell, Belleville, state democratic chairman; State Treasurer John Stelle, McLeansboro, and Speaker John Devine, Dixon.

The name of State Senator William H. Dieterich, Beardstown, also was being mentioned.

Since conferences between Chicago and downstate democrats have not concentrated on any special candidates, it was expected in some quarters that tomorrow's meeting would make provision for further conferences.

EXTEND VACATION

Sterling, Ill., Jan. 2.—(P)—As an emergency measure intended to forestall a possible scarlet fever epidemic here, Mayor W. E. Long today ordered a continuation of the holiday vacation in Sterling schools to next Monday. If necessary, he said, the vacation will be extended further. The fever apparently has been accompanied in some cases by streptococcal infection, the mayor said.

TAX COLLECTIONS

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 2.—(P)—Gasoline tax collections during 1935 totaled $31,701,915 during 1935, exceeding the 1934 figure by $37,030,010, finance director Ames announced today.

December collections were $3,702,249, compared with $2,768,739 in December, 1934.

OFFER BONUSES

Detroit, Jan. 2.—(P)—To stimulate the sales of new automobiles and late model used cars, the Chevrolet Motor Co. announced today it had set up a $1,000,000 fund from which its dealers will be paid $20 for every old car taken in trade and junked during January.

The company also said it would pay bonuses to its dealers' salesmen who sell more used cars during January than in the same month of 1934.

The Relief Crisis

Again Illinois faces a relief crisis. At other times the state has been at its rope's end in the matter of providing relief, and always something has been done to keep the dole flowing. This time it is proposed to close all relief stations Jan. 15, which would be a rather serious thing to do in the middle of the winter.

Governor Horner suggests that the problem be turned back to the counties and municipalities. But it should be remembered that the state has an income of $2,000,000 per month designated for relief, and that money should be distributed as far as it will go. On the basis of population Cook county would receive about half the amount, and the rest would be divided, with an average of $10,000 per month for each of the 101 remaining counties. This money might, if economically administered, provide the bare necessities for those in distress.

Pre-Convention Meet

The convening of Congress today will smash another precedent. This time the gathering is to be used to spend New Deal propaganda thru a night nationwide broadcast, in which President Roosevelt will deliver a verbal message to the national legislative body. It is a sort of pre-convention meeting, designed to aid the campaign to keep the New Deal group in power for another four years.

There is, of course, always much politics in Congress; but this is the first time in history that a Congressional session will be used to spread political propaganda. The thing is made possible because of radio facilities, seemingly well under government control. It is a novel stunt, but it sets a precedent that is far from wholesome.

The Washington administration is adept at gaining publicity. Expensive propaganda machinery is maintained. At the same time the newspapers of the nation maintain in Washington elaborate news service, with scores of skilled correspondents and reporters. All of the news from Washington is on the breakfast tables of the nation within a few hours. Were Congress to hold a normal first session, the press would have the details for its readers tonight.

Mysterious Strangers

Those who were in the business district in the small hours of Thursday morning were much intrigued by the appearance of several car loads of men who drove about in search of a service station. The strangers arrived at a mysterious hour, and they simply would not talk.

"We're St. Louis cops," is all they would say. But Jacksonville folks had a different idea. These strangers who traveled at night and said nothing were federal agents out looking for Alvin Karpis. They couldn't fool the people. As the cars circled the square and slid about the darkened streets, there came a creepy feeling. Maybe Karpis was in Jacksonville. But the cars finally left town, and everybody was relieved. Karpis had not been found here and surely the federal sleuths could not have overlooked him.

At last came daylight. Somebody got on the trail of the mystery visitors, and it was discovered they had excited curiosity in other Illinois towns. Still the idea they were federal agents persisted until Department of Justice headquarters accounted for all men in the service in this area.

With further probing the truth finally came out of Peoria. The strangers had indeed told the truth. They were St. Louis detectives out looking for a St. Louis gangster. It was strictly a private matter and none of the public's business. We are now certain that Alvin Karpis was NOT in Jacksonville. But it did make a good story.

SO THEY SAY

I believe that a true appreciation of the proper classifications of men will change our war on crime from the sporting event it now is, like the annual fox hunt with all its ballyhoo.

Work Relief and Community Benefits
Some people wonder why the Government is willing to make an outright gift of $189,000 to Jacksonville for a municipal light plant. It does seem strange and it certainly is unprecedented. But I think it is easy to understand.

The reason the Federal Government is willing to make this grant of $189,000 is because of a national crisis that makes it absolutely necessary for something to be done that will put the unemployed to work, give relief to those in need and especially so far as it is possible, to take them off the backs of the taxpayers and get them onto a payroll. This can best be done, the Government believes, by encouraging the cities to inaugurate revenue producing projects such as the proposed municipal light and power plant to be voted on January 21st.

This city, its officials and taxpayers are confronted with the same problems. The unemployed and dependent must in some way be taken care of. Work is infinitely better than charity. And work can be provided in this way so that it will not only relieve the unemployed, but will enable them to earn their own keep. It takes them off the taxpayers' backs.

Besides the project when built is a lasting benefit of great value to the community.

To The Editor:
On behalf of the Illinois Tuberculosis Association, and of all County Tuberculosis Associations throughout the state, I want to thank you and your staff for the splendid way in which you have cooperated with us in tuberculosis work during the past year.

We have found that knowledge among the lay public about the cause, prevention and treatment of tuberculosis is steadily increasing. This has resulted in a lowered death rate, as cases are being diagnosed earlier, more disease spreaders are being isolated and an informed public is demanding of official agencies that more adequate treatment facilities for tuberculosis patients be provided. Much of this has been accomplished because newspapers of Illinois have so willingly contributed space to advise the public about scientific facts pertaining to the eradication of tuberculosis and other communicable diseases.

We hope we may continue to count on you for support. There is much more work yet to be done because more than 4,000 people died of tuberculosis in Illinois last year.

Again assuring you of our appreciation and wishing you a Healthy and Happy New Year, I am,
Yours very truly,
R. N. HEFLIN, M. D.,
President.

Behind The Scenes In Washington

Borah's Candidacy Stirs Up Furore in Ranks of G. O. P. . . Making or Breaking of His Party May Be in Idahoan's Hands . . . Hard to Imagine Him as Big Business Choice . . . Democrats Gloat Over Idea of Republican Split.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal and Courier Washington Correspondent

Washington.—Perhaps you have to live in Washington to appreciate the confusion created by the candidacy of Senator William E. Borah for the Republican presidential nomination.

Stories about "the new Hoover" are of but mild interest here alongside the general speculation as to whether now there is to be a "new Borah."

For the capital's conception of the Idaho statesman comes close to the classic and rather mean reference made to him once by ex-Senator Jim Reed of Missouri, when he called Borah "The Great Beginner."

In other words, when you speak of Borah around here you are sure to be told that "he never finishes anything."

There is plenty of chapter and verse on that.

But it's something else again when Borah allows his name to be used in the presidential primaries and Borah was never before in any such strategic position as he is today.

First, it is conceded by many political observers that he could get more votes than anyone else the Republicans might name, if the election were tomorrow.

Second, the fate of the G. O. P. might well be in Borah's hands were he to consider bolting the party in case neither its platform nor its candidate should be satisfactory to him.

May Make or Break Party
Through the country Borah's name is one to conjure with at all times and right now there's a large hunk of sentiment among Republicans to liberalize their party.

It is possible to imagine Borah becoming the messiah of his party and it is possible to imagine him darned near wrecking it.

It is also possible to imagine him fading right out of the picture and having no influence at all on the political events of 1936.

Uncertainty here as to just what the Republicans will do has been both demonstrated and increased as a result of Borah's entry.

Roughly speaking, politicians and others whose opinions are relatively worth having are almost equally divided in guessing as to whether the nominee will be Governor Land of Kansas, Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, Borah, or Hoover—with a slight edge for Land.

Borah's Given a Chance
Touring around among returning senators the other day, this writer found several conceding Borah a fairly good chance—which may be significant in view of the fact that Washington generally had been thinking Borah was more radical than any man the East would accept.

But most of those who see Borah as a strong possibility say that his nomination would require either the overthrow of the G. O. P.'s titular bosses on the national committee, a sudden conviction among party leaders that Borah is virtually their only hope of beating Roosevelt, or a distinct understanding between Borah and the party's conservative leaders.

Borah's so-called economic heresies—his yen for inflation and alleged flirtations with the Townsendites, plus his support of most of the big New Deal legislation—hardly qualifies him as a buddy of the Liberty Leaguers, the "power trust" group, the big industrialists and financiers, and others who will provide most of the party's sinews of war and much of the noise during the campaign.

Both Parties May Split
The split in the Democratic party between the Roosevelt New Dealers and many of its old line conservatives compares with what may occur in the Republican party. The difference is that most of the Republican liberals checked out from under the Hoover standard in 1932 and that Borah represents the best hope of getting large numbers of them back in 1936.

Many Democratic conservatives are expected to desert their party this year and Roosevelt must hold most of the liberal or independent vote to win.

Republican leaders here for the recent national committee meeting were hoping that Borah and Hoover, whose dislike for each other is violent and bitter, will cancel each other off.

Few of those leaders desired either man as the party candidate. But both Hoover and Borah desire to be the dominant powers at that convention and it's not hard to imagine a battle between them which will do the party no good.

Hope for G. O. P. Row
Democratic strategists are depending on a Republican family fight which will aid Roosevelt, and they think Hoover and Borah are providing the makings. They would like to see Hoover nominated and hate to see Borah nominated.

But they're quite enchanted with the idea that a "new Borah," for once determined to go through with something and a "new Hoover," full of self-righteous desire for vindication, may make a shambles out of the G. O. P. show.

And that's one reason certain wily Republicans are talking of bringing out a "new man" who might suppress party differences—such as Justice Roberts, Justice Stone, or Comptroller General McCarl.

Italians Not to Send Sweden Note

None Killed in Bombing of Hospital Unit, Claim

Rome.—(P)—Informed sources said today the Italian government does not consider explanations to Sweden concerning the bombing of a Swedish-Ethiopian hospital unit to be necessary.

The government now has been informed that no Swedes were killed in the Monday bombardment on the southern Ethiopian front and that only one was wounded.

(An Ethiopian communique from Addis Ababa today stated 28 Ethiopians were killed and two Swedish physicians wounded in the attack.)

Travelers in a war zone must necessarily take risks, Fascists said.

The Italian "sources" also declared that the beheading of two Italian aviators by Ethiopian troops, an incident which the Fascist government cited to justify the aerial attack, was witnessed by other fliers from the air.

EUGENICS MOTHER IS PUT ON WPA PROGRAM

Chicago.—(P)—Kate Pullman, who shocked the city seven years ago with the birth of what she termed an "eugenics baby" and became the toast of the night life throngs, was listed for a return engagement today.

Her latest appearance was announced as the team of Pullman and Jones on a program arranged by the works progress administration. Jones was unidentified, but it was reported he was not her former partner, Roscoe Allen, who Miss Pullman finally admitted was the perfect man she had picked as the father of her child, Adonis.

Allen later married another actress.

George Dowell of DuQuoin Will Seek G. O. P. Nomination

Chief Counsel for Progressive Miners Outlines Five Point Platform

DuQuoin, Ill.—(P)—George W. Dowell, chief counsel for the Progressive Miners of America, today announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor in the April primary.

Dowell, DuQuoin attorney and former member of the state court of claims, outlined a five-point platform on which he will make an "extensive" state-wide campaign.

It was based on "fundamental principles x x x enunciated by Lincoln and the other great leaders and founders of the party" and strongly affirmed his adherence to the "constitutional fundamentals upon which this government is founded."

Dowell asserted as a leading plank that "prosperity can be brought to this state through a constructive program of rehabilitation of industry within the constitutional limitation."

Preservation of the "constitutional fundamentals" was made a pledge in a plank announcing opposition to "dictators, bureaucracies and autocracies."

"State individualism should be maintained. x x x It is the sworn duty of the chief executive of the state to oppose infringement or attempted usurpation of that right," he asserted.

Economy in state operations and reduction in taxes were also advocated in a plank that demanded state aid for the unemployed, the aged and the infirm.

OLD GUN EXPLODES

Somerset, Pa.—(P)—Merle Faust welcomed the new year by pulling the trigger on a 150-year-old musket once owned by his great grandfather. The old musket lumbered and a piece of steel pierced the youth's eye. Doctors used a magnet to remove the silver.

their plans for the future.

One report had it that their representative, W. H. Gregory of Morgan, Grenfell and Co., had gone to London to negotiate for a house in Surrey or London, with the Lindberghs awaiting his return here before deciding their plans definitely.

Other rumors insisted the family still intended to go to the Landaff, Wales, home of J. Llewellyn Morgan, father of Aubrey Niel Morgan, brother-in-law of Mrs. Lindbergh.

Lindberghs Go on House Hunting Trip

Secrecy Imposed on Moves Made by Lone Eagle

Liverpool.—(P)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh scouted England today for a home to bring fulfillment of his self-expressed desire for "quiet and rest in this country."

Because of the very secrecy imposed on the movements of the flying colonel, Anne and three-year-old Jon, many and varied rumors arose as to

LEO LYONS TAKES OVER RELIEF WORK

Chicago.—(P)—Faced with a shortage of funds which will leave the state unable to continue relief to 185,000 families after January 15 unless a solution is found, Leo M. Lyons, former Cook county relief administrator, today took over William S. Reynolds' job as Illinois Emergency Relief commission executive secretary.

Reynolds recently resigned effective January 1.

The commission has a total income expectancy of approximately $2,000,000 for January, compared with an estimated need of $5,965,911.

A New $420,000 Industry For Jacksonville

Locally Owned and Operated Enterprise for Benefit of Local People . . Without Cost to Taxpayers or City

Approval by Jacksonville voters of the Municipal Light Plant project at the election on January 21 means a new $420,000 industry for Jacksonville.

In addition to bringing to this city the largest new enterprise of many years, it will be strictly by, of and for Jacksonville people—ownership, operation, management and benefit. Furthermore, it means that Jacksonville money stays in Jacksonville.

What farsighted citizen, what progressive business man, what truly public spirited civic organization can fail to grasp this chance for a Greater Jacksonville?

It means employment. It means wages. It means money spent with Jacksonville business men. This stimulant will react upon the entire community—the $189,000 as an outright gift—the $231,000 as a loan—a total of $420,000 of which a large part will be spent here in Jacksonville.

This $420,000 poured into the business and industrial expansion and development of this community cannot fail of effect. We cannot let pass this opportunity to insure Jacksonville's future. We cannot fall behind our neighbor cities.

You and all of us must work hard from now until election day to get out the vote so as to carry the proposition on January 21.

Vote "YES" three times. Vote "YES" on all three propositions.

20 MILLION SHOW TO OPEN TOMORROW

That is Cost of Congress to U. S. Taxpayers

Washington.—(P)—It's a $20,000,000 show that opens on Capitol Hill tomorrow when congress convenes.

That is what it costs annually to maintain the national legislature and all its appurtenances. The cost is about the same whether congress meets all year or only a few months. Salaries are the biggest items, but much money is required to maintain the expensive capital building and grounds, the government printing office, and the congressional library.

FOX MAJESTIC—Today and Saturday. Dick Talmadge in "NOW OR NEVER."

TRANSATLANTIC TUNNEL

"Transatlantic Tunnel." Linking America to England—under Old Ocean's bed—the latest feat of engineering marvel. It just had to be some day and so here we are! Not that the point has quite been reached where business men may commute between Bagdad-on-the-Hudson and the imperial city by the Thames, or accept casual long distance phone calls to lunch the same day.

To be candid, the gigantic submarine tube has only entered upon the film stage of construction, as exemplified in GB's eight star special, "TRANSATLANTIC TUNNEL," today only at the FOX ILLINOIS Theatre. Richard Dix and Leslie Banks head an all star cast including Helen Vinson, Madge Evans, C. Aubrey Smith and Basil Sydney. GB also renders thanks to Walter Huston and George Arliss for their gracious contributions—revels of the President of the United States and Prime Minister of England.

Passes today at Fox Illinois for Miss Laura Hatfield, 697 East State street. At Fox Majestic for Mrs. Alma Elmore, Alexander, Illinois.

NOW OR NEVER

Richard Talmadge in "NOW OR NEVER," a fast-moving, blood untingling romantic thrill-drama of struggle for the possession of stolen diamonds. There's more action and dare-devil stunts packed into this hour of frenzied speed and fighting fury than you've ever seen before. With Dick at his splendid best as a wonder-athlete, battling for the honor of his name and the love of a loyal girl!

Singing Joe Morrison, battling Paul Kelly, charming Rosaline Keith. "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here" is the warm story of Uncle Sam's great peace time army . . . the CCC "IT'S A GREAT LIFE" plays at the FOX ILLINOIS Saturday only.

Five Cars Thought To Have Been Used By Federal Agents

Party of Strangers Here Early Thursday Morning Say "We're Cops"

Peoria.—(AP)—Seeking a "St. Louis carster" whose identity they refused to disclose, two Peoria police officers yesterday made a tour of Peoria. They were informed that the cars carried "St. Louis cops," but that was all the travelers said. While the cars were here they were under constant surveillance of the police department.

The cars which appeared to be traveling together appeared on the square at an early hour. Members of the police department trailed the strange cars and stopped two of them. They were informed that the cars carried "St. Louis cops," but that was all the travelers said. While the cars were here they were under constant surveillance of the police department.

The detectives were headed by Sergeant James McManus and William Portman. The man sought, they said, was known to have Peoria connections. The passage of the searching party through several Illinois cities gave rise to reports that Department of Justice men were conducting a hunt for Alvin Karpis, fugitive "Public Enemy No. 1."

Five automobiles believed to carry government officers passed through the Jacksonville business district early yesterday morning, stopping to fill two of the cars with gasoline. Occupants of the cars talked with only a few persons and one of them said "We are St. Louis cops."

Calmness Needed in Life, Says Pastor

Rev. F. D. Stone in Talk to Kiwanis Club Points Out Man's Assets
"Maintaining one's composure" was the subject of the address given at the Thursday meeting of the local Kiwanis club, by Rev. F. D. Stone, pastor of the First Baptist church here.

The biggest asset a man has, said Rev. Mr. Stone, is not his business, not his money, nor family, but himself. "I know nothing that will rattle a man's business faster than for him to lose his head," said the speaker. He should not lose his head but should maintain his composure, and be calm.

Many men need at the beginning of this year, declared Mr. Stone, to take inventory of themselves. All of this country's great men were men who could be calm under all circumstances. Jesus could maintain his composure at all times. When Jesus was hanging on the cross he said, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do," thus giving an example of being calm.

Custodian of Notre Dame Larder Says Spinach Puts Fight in Fighting Irish

By Robert Walton.

Associated Press Staff Writer.

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 7.—(P)—The secret came out today—it's spinach that puts fight into the "Fighting Irish" of Notre Dame.

They eat it by the bushel along with more than a ton and a half of meat daily, and wash it down with a small lake of milk and coffee, said John Kilfether.

And Kilfether, as custodian of the larder at the world's largest boarding school, ought to know for it's his job to buy the food.

The only rest he gets is during vacations and even then he has before him the vision of 2,700 returning students—every one of them hungry.

There's one thing you can always count on, he said, and that is a student's appetite. It's never satisfied.

Kilfether hails from Cincinnati and has spent 15 years studying men's appetites. He "trained" for his present job in a large Chicago hotel.

If spinach is on the menu, it's Kilfether's job to supply the chef with 25 bushels of it. It's a universal favorite among Notre Dame students whether they're fullbacks on Coach Thayer Layden's football team or just members of the cheering section, said Kilfether.

But that's not all they get for dinner. If chicken is included it takes 80 dozen or 960 fowls—upwards of 2,000 drum sticks. Kilfether said he buys about 2,500 chickens a week.

Cauliflower and lettuce are also favorites with the Irish. They eat 30 crates of cauliflower and six cases of lettuce at a meal and think nothing of it.

During the course of a day Kilfether said 1,500 loaves of bread pass from the kitchen to the dining room and disappear along with 500 pounds of butter. For thirst quenchers Notre Dame students drink 750 gallons of milk and 350 gallons of coffee a day.

Kilfether buys food a week ahead on a basis of 63,000 meals and his weekly order to the grocer and butcher is generally given in tons instead of pounds. It goes something like this:

Twelve tons of potatoes.

Ten tons of meat.

Three thousand four hundred pounds of sugar.

Twenty-five hundred heads of lettuce.

Three thousand five hundred twenty-eight pounds of butter.

Four hundred ninety gallons of cream.

Y.M.C.A. Cagers To Open Play Tuesday Night

Six Teams Lined Up For Loop This Year; All Games On D. P. Court

With all the preliminary arrangements completed, the Y.M.C.A. Basketball League will get under way in the David Prince gymnasium Tuesday night January 7th.

Six teams have signified their intentions of competing for the city championship. Smith's Indians, champions for the past two years, Swift and Co., Chevrolet, and Lynnville are returning and two new teams will join the parade this year. The new entries, "The Playboys," under the management of Art Davenport and Maurice Lait, and the Jacksonville Merchants directed by "Tiny" Wilner are expected to give the older members plenty of basketball.

Three games are to be played each of these evenings until two rounds of five games have been played by each of the entries. The round winners will meet in a championship series at the close of the season. A split season was decided upon by the managers so that they might reinforce their teams before the second round. After the second round the teams can not sign any new players to their rosters.

The managers are requested to get their lists of players for the first game in by Monday night.

ALL EYES ON THE BALL

Players, referee, nor none of the crowd of 15,000 assembled in Madison Square Garden had to be cautioned to keep their eyes on the ball when Milt Schultman tried a foul shot for New York University during the Violets' thrilling 45-41 victory over Purdue. Schultman missed. The players on this side of the group eagerly awaiting the descent of the leather are Irv Terjesen, N. Y. U.; Jones Sines (32), Purdue; and Irving (King Kong) Klein, N. Y. U.

Reds Continue Night Baseball

By Alan Gould

(Associated Press Sports Editor)
 New York, Jan. 7.—(P)—Despite the striking success of the first major league experiment with night baseball, as conducted by the Cincinnati Club, it appears the Reds are unlikely to have much, if any, company in offering competition under the lights for 1936.

Night ball is still taboo in the American League, notwithstanding the reported conversion of some of the "old guard," notably Clark Griffith of Washington, to the idea. In the National League, which voted to continue on the basis of limiting night games to a maximum of seven—one with each league rival—in any league city, Boston seems to be the only club seriously considering an extension of the Cincinnati experiment. The Reds, of course, will continue to make the maximum possible use of their $30,000 lighting plant.

Sam Beardon, enterprising president of the St. Louis Cardinals, is an enthusiastic believer of night baseball but his willingness to have the Red Birds furnish evening entertainment is blocked by the fact the club does not own its home playing grounds. Sportsman's Park, where all major league ball is played in St. Louis, is controlled by the Browns.

Ford C. Frick, youthful president of the National League, believes night baseball is here to stay and no longer to be considered an "experiment." It is conceded, however, that it will be a long time before anything like a majority of big clubs is equipped to play under the lights. The American League's top-ranking clubs are solidly against the idea.

Winning clubs, with little or no worry about day-time patronage, naturally see no reason for going to the heavy expense of a lighting plant, for a limited number of games, without any assurance of its necessity. The general gain in major league attendance last year, in both leagues, has convinced most managers the game is well on the road to solid financial recovery without artificial aid.

Official Scorers Talked by Big Ten

Notre Dame-Northwestern Mix Up May Cause Change in Handling Game

Chicago.—(P)—Amused but disturbed over the strange ending of the Notre Dame-Northwestern game, Big Ten coaches checked up on their scorers today as they prepared for the opening of the conference basketball championship race Saturday night.

Several reported they were in favor of hiring experts as official scorers to eliminate the possibility of a repetition of the Notre Dame-Northwestern contest, which actually ended in a 20-20 tie although players on both sides figured Northwestern with 20, 19 to 18.

As for Kenneth "Tug" Wilson, Northwestern's athletics director, who concerned the game will go down in the books as a tie, Wilson agreed with newspapermen that a free throw by Meyer of Notre Dame had been overlooked by the undergraduate scorers from Notre Dame and Northwestern. Coach George Keogan of Notre Dame said he would like to have the game re-played, but the Wildcats' schedule is full, with the Big Ten campaign coming up.

Ryder Cup Donor is Pneumonia Victim

Dies Suddenly in Hotel in London; Donated Cup in 1926

London.—(P)—Samuel Ryder, 77, donor of the Ryder golf cup, for competition between professionals of the United States and England, died suddenly today in a London hotel.

Ryder, who went to the hotel for the Christmas holidays, succumbed to pneumonia.

He presented his trophy at St. Albans, Eng., in 1926. It was first competed for in 1927.

The contest takes place in alternate years, each country being visited in turn.

Detroit Redwings Defeat Blackhawks

New York.—(P)—The dispute between the Detroit Red Wings and Chicago Blackhawks over whether it was defensive hockey that gave Chicago the victory in their National Hockey League encounter Christmas night, seems to be growing into a serious matter.

The two teams became so steamed up over the stalling charges slung around by the managers they put on a rough and tumble shindy game when they clashed at Chicago last night.

The Red Wings won the game 4 to 2 and went back into a tie with the idle New York Rangers for the American division lead. The Hawks were relegated to third place.

Last night's second game, involving a pair of tail enders, brought something of a surprise when the Montreal Canadiens whipped the Boston Bruins 2 to 0.

Robinson.—(P)—A coroner's jury returned a suicide verdict in the death of Miss Jane Tomlinson, 18, University of Illinois sophomore found dead of carbon monoxide fumes in the family garage. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tomlinson, Oblong, Ill.

Want Eighth in Row to Open Up New Year Schedule; Prep Firing to Become General

Seeking their eighth straight victory, Jacksonville high's Crimson will open the firing on the 1936 schedule tonight when they go to Mt. Sterling, and at the same time contribute their part to a resumption of the basketball activity all over the district.

While there is a cloud on the Crimson record in the form of a victory marked up by the 1934-35 team in a morning practice session during the holidays, the Crimson have yet to be tested by any prep team. They will resume their schedule with the same squad that left off in 1935, with Bob Hamm and Lynn Ferguson, forwards, George Hamilton, center, John Bell and George Moxon, guards, the probable starting line-up.

The game will be the final combat until the Crimson enter the Beards-town tournament a week from last night. They hope to carry an unbeaten record into the tournament and to come out of it with the same sort of record. Jacksonville has been consistently near the Beards-town title, but has yet to bring home their first championship trophy.

Although schools in many instances have not re-opened following the Christmas holidays, most of the teams in the area will return to the court tonight for games, some of which will figure in conference standings, and others of which will bring together rivals.

Pleasant Hill and Pittsfield will resume their ancient feud on the Pittsfield gymnasium in a game which will figure in both the Northwestern Illinois Valley and the Pike county conference standings. Pittsfield won the opening bout between the two teams at Pleasant Hill, Griggsville, rated as one of the teams on the way up, will go to Winchester for a game with the Wildcats. They need a victory to keep up with Pittsfield in the race for the Northwestern Ivy title.

In the Southwestern half of the Valley, Jessville and Greenfield rivals from way back, will tangle in a double header that promises to pack the Greenfield gymnasium. Greenfield topped two out of three games the last week before Christmas and appears to be improving.

Murrayville at White Hall

Murrayville, with another good team on the way, will attempt to repeat its home court victory over White Hall tonight on the "White Hall" grounds, a feat which promises to be enough work for the Shadows to keep them busy all evening. White Hall has assembled a high scoring troupe this year and appears to have its act on the road for a large part of the season. Pleasant Plains moves to Virginia, Medora invades Rockbridge, and Roodhouse plays a return engagement at Riverton.

Saturday night will find some desultory firing with Pittsfield at Milton, White Hall at Rockbridge, Channahon at Tusculum and Beards-town at Ashland.

Waverly meets Kincaid on the Morgan county court in resuming its M. S. M. conference card, and Alsey goes to Franklin to come within two or three games of winning up the home schedule for the Flashers who will be on the road for a large part of the season. Pleasant Plains moves to Virginia, Medora invades Rockbridge, and Roodhouse plays a return engagement at Riverton.

Thelma Todd Told Divorced Husband Plenty At Party

Ida Lupino Testifies That Actress Wished Accident Would Take Her Life

Los Angeles, Jan. 2.—(P)—Ida Lupino, actress, testified today before the grand jury that Thelma Todd told her divorced husband "plenty" when he appeared as the escort of another film star at the scene of a party which preceded Miss Todd's mystery death.

The former husband, Pasquale Di Cicco, previously told the grand jury that his blonde ex-wife only laughed when she saw him.

"What actually happened was that Thelma told him off plenty when he came with Margaret Lindsay, after having been invited to attend our party," Miss Lupino said.

Di Cicco brought Miss Lindsay to the same cafe where Miss Lupino's party for Miss Todd was held.

He had explained he was only "kidding" when he asked Miss Lupino to invite him and have him seated next to his former wife.

"I thought he was serious," Miss Lupino said she told the grand jury.

Di Cicco testified that after Miss Lupino invited him he had his secretary telephone her house, declining it.

"My servant is sure no one called to decline the invitation," Miss Lupino said.

Miss Todd's vivacious appearance concealed a brooding nature, "she wished some accident would take her life" and she had "a very bad heart," Miss Lupino said.

A. B. C. Club Holds Thursday Meeting

Ralph Easley Discusses N. R. S. At Session Last Night

The A. B. C. club held its regular Thursday night supper meeting in the Peacock in last evening to hear an address by Ralph H. Easley, district manager of the national re-employment service, who presented a history of the service and its activities.

In the business meeting it was decided to hold a ladies night meeting in the near future, and also to send a visiting delegation to other business clubs in Springfield, Taylorville and Danville.

The speaker of the evening stated that the present service had been in existence only two years, having taken its form somewhat from the old U. S. Employment service which was 20 years old when discarded by an act of Congress authorizing the new work activity service.

Of especial emphasis was the explanation that the office was for the use of private industry and business men as well as for reference in placing individuals in public works positions. There are three functions of the national bureau: registration, classification and recommendation of prospects to employers.

CREATION OF 48 LITTLE A. A. A'S BEING PLANNED

Leaders Are Prepared For Supreme Court Decision

By Jerry Greene
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, Jan. 2.—(P)—Creation of 48 "little AAAs" to administer the New Deal's farm aid program under federal supervision was suggested today by Chester C. Davis, AAA administrator, as one alternative should the supreme court hold the present law violates states' rights.

This arrangement would call for distribution of federal funds to states for disbursement to farmers participating in crop adjustment programs, in a manner similar to allocation of federal money to states for road construction.

"Naturally," Davis said in an interview, "we have tried to look forward to prepare for any emergency should the adjustment act be held unconstitutional."

"Among the alternatives that have been considered is the possibility that in the event article 10 of the constitution should be the basis for an adverse decision, the federal government could still move toward the end of adjustment through agreements with the several states. This could be possible, of course, only if congress is willing and the farm thought seemed to lie in that direction."

Article 10 of the constitution, (the tenth amendment), reserves to the states and the people powers not delegated to the federal government.

In addition to hearing arguments on the validity of processing taxes, through which payments to farmers are financed, the highest tribunal listened to contentions, denied by administration lawyers, that under the tenth amendment, the government had no authority to regulate production of crops within a sovereign state. Rulings on AAA's validity may be handed down Monday.

Under the proposal which Davis outlined today, each state would administer its own adjustment program, subject to approval of the federal government. Processing taxes might be re-enacted as strictly excise taxes at the maximum rate now in effect, and the money would go into the treasury's general fund.

Italy Calls For 5700 Volunteers For Air Service

Air Ministry Asks For 1,500 Pilots, 4,200 Base Experts

By Charles H. Guptill
Associated Press Foreign Staff.
Rome, Jan. 2.—(P)—Italy called for 5,700 volunteers for her air service tonight in what Fascists said was "the greatest aerial enlistment in history."

The air ministry asked for 1,500 pilots and 4,200 base experts. Italy has officially expressed regret for the bombardment of a Swedish Red Cross unit, but warned Sweden against "tendentious versions of the incident," it was disclosed.

The regrets and warnings took place yesterday between Fulvio Suvich, under-secretary of state for foreign affairs, and the Swedish minister, a communique said.

In "expressing his grief," the announcement stated, Suvich explained that the bombardment was in retaliation for an "atrocity" committed by the Ethiopians.

New and undisclosed "scientific weapons" may be pressed into Italy's fight against Ethiopia, a reliable source said today.

Italy has a vast quantity of these weapons, which thus far she has been reluctant to use, the informant said. But Ethiopian war practices may make it necessary to bring the new instruments into play, he asserted.

A violent Fascist campaign for the air, some observers predicted, might come as "punishment" for the alleged decapitation of Ethiopian warriors of Italian fighters.

It was disclosed that the bombing of a Swedish ambulance unit was in retaliation for the alleged decapitation of a pilot.

Italy, it was said in informed circles, does not consider explanations to Sweden about the bombing to be necessary. Asserting the government was informed no Swedes were killed, (An Ethiopian communique said 28 Ethiopians were killed and two Swedish physicians wounded in the air raid.)

Berea Ladies Aid Society Holds Meet At Robinson Home

The Berea Ladies' Aid society was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harrison Robinson. A pot luck dinner was served at noon to members of the Aid and their families and a large number of guests.

The program for the afternoon was under the direction of Mrs. Clyde Lewis. A poem, "Recipe for a Successful New Year," was given by Mrs. Walter Houston and a paper and reading by Mrs. Clyde Lewis.

Several contests concluded the program and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Frank Foster. The meeting adjourned to meet in February with Mrs. Frank Foster with Mrs. Christina Strawn as assistant hostess.

Water Precious to Italian Army

The importance and difficulty of maintaining an adequate supply of water for the Italian troops pushing forward in Ethiopia is shown by this picture, taken by Ray Rousseau. NEA Service staff photographer on the northern front. An armed guard is stationed at the tanks as the soldiers draw their rations of water. The tanks are of canvas and the seepage and resulting evaporation help to cool the tepid fluid.

Seek Man Alleged to Have

Been Associated with

Isador Fisch

Trouton, N. J.—Bruno Hauptmann's lawyers injected an unidentified man into the Lindbergh kidnapping today, disclosing they were checking a story that the man and the late Isador Fisch were associated in the crime.

The latest move in defense efforts keep Hauptmann from the electric chair this week of January 13 developed on the first anniversary of the opening of his Flamington trial.

"We are investigating a lead," said Attorney Frederick A. Pope.

The counsel for the convicted slayer of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr. declined to disclose the identity or whereabouts, if known, of the new figure. Until the lead was fully developed, he indicated details would not be made public.

Pope said the defense "wouldn't go so far as to say" that pictures of the man and his name would be produced before the New Jersey court of pardons when Hauptmann's plea of clemency is presented. Such a move was reported under contemplation.

At his trial, Hauptmann testified he received the Lindbergh ransom bills found in his home from Fisch, his former business partner. Fisch died in Germany before the trial. His sister testified for the state that he arrived in Germany virtually without funds. Other evidence was offered in an effort to show that Fisch was in impecunious circumstances while in the United States.

Governor Harold G. Hoffman, a member of the court of pardons, was expected to fix today a date for hearing Hauptmann's plea for clemency.

Chicago—A 28-year-old father and two daughters he tried to save were burned to death early today when fire swept their two-story frame home at suburban Lombard.

The dead: Miss E. Miller, 28, a Chicago Federal Reserve bank guard, and her daughters, June, 6, and Shirley, 4.

Mrs. Miller and her son, Dennis, 21, years old, were seriously burned.

Firemen said Miller apparently used kerosene to start a fire in a first floor stove. Glowing embers ignited the fluid and it puffed out, setting fire to furnishings, the investigators decided.

Miller ran to an adjoining room where Mrs. Miller and Dennis slept, and carried them out of the house. Then he dashed back for the girls but by then most of the house was ablaze and he failed to return. Firemen found his body in a kneeling position, his head on the bed and one arm thrown over the bodies of the girls.

Allen Baldwin Dies Here, Second Victim Of Accident

Move to Restore City Salaries; Act to Quash Clement Indictment

Starting the New Year with a rush, the city council at its regular meeting last night indicated its intention to restore a ten per cent wage cut levied against city employees several years ago, and passed a resolution to the effect that the council favors quashing the indictment now standing in the circuit court of Morgan county against H. C. Clement, former city treasurer, charged with embezzlement and withholding city funds.

Scanning the future, the council estimated that it would receive $214,670 in revenues and set about building its budget for the coming year. The council worked on the budget for nearly two hours, adjourning at midnight with a tentative draft calling for expenditure of $214,578.50. The council will go over the budget again before drafting it into the form of an ordinance for passage.

Acting on a petition signed by 118 persons, including business, professional, educational, and public employees, the council passed the resolution asking the State's Attorney to dismiss the case pending against H. C. Clement. The action was taken unanimously by the six aldermen present. Aldermen George Brown and W. H. Coking not attending the meeting.

The petition was presented by Alderman Robert Weaver, and read by City Clerk John R. Phillips. Speaking on the petition, J. H. Dial, a neighbor of the Clement family, stated that the petition was not circulated until Thursday afternoon, and that the signatures were secured with only three refusals from the 121 persons contacted. The petition asking the council to take some action asking that the indictment be dropped, pointed out that M. F. Dunlap, president of the now defunct Avera National bank, was on the surety bond and was almost in complete control of the actions of Mr. Clement.

The petition also declared that the state would have difficulty in proving that there was criminal intent in the actions whereby funds of the city, then in Clement's control, were turned over to the president of the now defunct institution, and that Clement did not profit by the transaction.

The Resolution

The resolution as adopted by the council is as follows:

Whereas there has been presented to this body, the city Council of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois, in regular meeting duly assembled, a petition signed by a large number of representative business men, citizens and tax payers of Jacksonville, Illinois, requesting that action be taken by this body looking toward a dismissal of the case of "People of the State of Illinois vs. Harold C. Clement" being charges of embezzlement and withholding funds of the city of Jacksonville; and

WHEREAS, it is deemed advisable to give serious consideration to the petition of said business men and others of Jacksonville, Illinois, and upon mature deliberation concerning the contents and purposes of said petition this body desires to go on record in the said matter; and

WHEREAS, this body, after careful consideration and mature deliberation is in sympathy with the contents and prayer of the petition, and

Endorse Salary Raises

Given the endorsement of Mayor F. J. Blackburn, and the approval of F. R. Mathews, chairman of the finance committee of the council, not a word was spoken against returning the ten per cent cut taken from the city employees at the time of the failure of the Avera National bank. Salaries throughout the entire list of employees with a few exceptions were placed back on the 1932 level.

No estimate was made of the total salary reductions restored tentatively in the budget estimates for the coming year. Numerous other changes were made in the budget, most of all down for the sake of simplicity, and the amount of money requested by the various departments for their particular operations of their particular departments was boosted to meet deficiencies and to care for increased costs.

Grouping three departments under a single head, the council voted to create the office of Manager of Municipal Utilities, and passed a resolution naming George Stoldt as the holder of this office at a salary of $250 a month. His duties will be to supervise the water and light plant, the distribution lines of both plants, and to supervise the two sewage disposal

Y. M. C. A. Plans For Recreation Program

To Promote Variety Of Activities Thruout Morgan County

Plans for a program of recreation and leisure time activities for the various communities of Morgan County are finally maturing after considerable delay. The program will be under the general supervision of the Jacksonville Y. M. C. A. with a staff of employees provided through the co-operation of the Works Progress Administration. Earl T. Crutcher of Peoria was in conference with Y. M. C. A. Secretary Hermann early this week considering the proposed program.

The plan contemplates the promotion of a variety of activities throughout the county which will include: handicraft projects, musical groups, physical activities, informal study and discussion clubs, recreation rooms, social activities, etc. However, as practically no funds are available for expenses other than for wages (provided through the WPA), the activities which can be promoted will depend on such facilities as the communities can provide in the way of adequate rooms and equipment.

The plan, as sponsored by the State Department of Public Welfare, offers such programs to any Morgan County community which can provide a limited amount of equipment or suitable quarters. The principal purpose of the project is to provide employment of a type different from the customary Works Progress jobs, while at the same time, offering a constructive program of leisure time activity.

Any communities in the county which may be interested are invited to communicate with A. D. Hermann, Secretary of the Jacksonville Y. M. C. A.

Cupid's Leap Year in City Receives Free Rites Offer

Cupid's Leap Year campaign in this city received more than its usual impetus yesterday afternoon with the "get married here free" announcement of Justice of the Peace C. S. Smith. The only requirement for a "fee-less" ceremony is that it be a leap year engagement, the girl having proposed to the man.

The Justice will have a sworn affidavit in his office which the couple will sign, swearing that it was the woman whose knees graced the parlor rug in a romantic plea for the man her choice. In short, that it must have been the gentleman who sighed, "I do."

The offer will be continued throughout leap year.

Death of Former Local Resident Result of Carrollton Mishap

Allen Stansfield (Al) Baldwin, 45, well known resident of Carrollton, and former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at 10:30 o'clock last night, at Our Saviour's hospital, as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident early Thursday morning, near Carrollton. A companion, Donald Denny, 22, was instantly killed in the tragic happening, and four other occupants of the machine suffered injuries. All of the men in the accident were Carrollton residents.

The condition of the other occupants of the car, was reported to be unchanged last night. Three of the men are patients at Our Saviour's hospital. Jennings Shackelford, 23, is suffering from a fracture of the left leg and his foot is mangled. It was at first thought that he might lose the foot but it was reported at the hospital last night that physicians hope to save it.

Elmer Riva, 21, suffered a fractured skull and is suffering from a concussion. Arthur Isaacs, colored has several broken ribs and internal injuries, and is reported to be in a serious condition. He was taken to the White Hall hospital, but was later returned to his home in Carrollton.

Despite his injuries Isaacs was able to go to a farm house after the crash and summon help. In a dazed condition he finally reached a phone and summoned Dr. A. D. Wilson of Carrollton.

Dr. Wilson said he believed the victims of the accident had lain for an hour as they had landed after the crash. They were rushed first to White Hall, and then brought to the hospital here, where Dr. R. M. Norris gave surgical aid. The injured men could give no definite information as to how the accident occurred.

Witnesses who arrived on the scene after the accident had been reported said that the motor, the flywheel and front trucks of the car had been hurled fully a hundred feet from the rest of the chassis by the force of the collision.

The car which crashed into a tree near the Henry Raw farm was driven by Riva. It was a Dodge sedan and was completely wrecked. The six men in the machine were traveling east, according to reports. The car skidded at a culvert and hill and left the slab crashing into a tree.

Killed Outright

Donald Denny, who was killed outright in the crash, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Denny of Carrollton.

Riva is a welder and was operating a machine at the Bijou theater, managed by his father. The family formerly resided in White Hall. The youth is survived by his parents and one sister, Miss Rosemary Denny. A brother, Duward Denny, was killed in a motorcycle accident some years ago.

Donald Denny sustained a broken neck, which caused his death. Examination of his body revealed no other major injuries. Denny is a cousin of Mayor Stanley Thomas of White Hall.

The remains of Denny were removed to the Ben Mehl undertaking establishment in Carrollton.

Allen Stansfield Baldwin was born in Jacksonville March 9, 1890, the son of Stansfield and Nettie Joett Baldwin. He was united in marriage with Carmen Sisson, who survives together with two children, Betty and Maurice at home. He also leaves two brothers, William W. and Roy E. Baldwin of this city and three sisters, Mrs. Lena Petri, Hammond, Ind.; Mrs. Lavina Hecken, Jacksonville and Mrs. Marie Wheeland, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The remains were removed to the Williamson Funeral Home, where an inquest will be held at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Mr. Baldwin attended the Sherman school north of the city. As a youth he became interested in boxing and followed the career of a professional boxer in the lightweight division for several years. He fought several battles with well known boxers his contests taking him to Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Peoria and Tulsa, Okla. Probably his greatest victory came when he defeated Kid Beebe in a bout at Springfield. He held a record of never having been knocked out.

New Fall Schedule Of Classes Ready At Local CCC Camp

Plan Extensive Program Of Instruction For Enrollees

Registration has just been completed for the biggest program of instruction thus far offered at Camp. Many vocational subjects are included in the curriculum, and a splendid response was made by the enrollees to the opportunities offered for practical training.

Following are the courses now on the program: auto repairing, concrete construction, conservation and forestry, elementary English, first aid, general engineering, journalism, radio servicing, reading and public speaking, spelling, surveying, and type-writing.

Generous assistance by experts on other duties at Camp, as well as by other interested individuals makes this varied program possible. The course in auto repairing, for instance, is being offered by W. B. Hough, the auto mechanic recently employed at the state garage at Camp, concrete construction and surveying are both offered by the camp engineer, R. P. Weeber; conservation and forestry by T. J. Shambaugh, state agronomist; general engineering by N. C. Fetter, senior foreman; and radio servicing by one of the enrollees, Dale Brilhart.

The class in journalism is made possible by the willingness of Karl Monroe, of Illinois College, to devote an evening each week to this service. Karl Monroe is associate editor of The Rambler, the campus newspaper at Illinois College. His class at Camp will consist largely of the staff of the Jacksonville Camp News, which is the only paper published by the camp.

The class in first aid, conducted by camp physician, Dr. L. Shuman, has been under way some time and has gained additional enrollees steadily on account of its popularity. A course in safe driving has just been concluded by Dr. Raymond Filter, educational adviser, which is being submitted to CCC headquarters in outline form as this Camp's contribution to the series of courses to be printed and distributed for general use at CCC camps.

In addition to the classes mentioned there are several courses of instruction being given to the boys in connection with their work in the field. Camp work Superintendent, B. C. Taylor, regularly meets the group of foremen, leaders and assistant leaders to give special instruction in their work. Other subjects covered by the technical staff at this camp include: instruction in the field include: "Erosion Control Structures," given by V. Moore and N. C. Fetter; "Forestry: Woodlot Improvement," by Clyde Taylor; "Limestone Quarry," by A. Brockhouse; "Terracing" and "Permanent Dams," by R. B. Weeber.

In Dr. Filter's opinion the biggest factor in the development of the present enthusiasm of the boys for this educational program has been the series of after-dinner talks given by local civic leaders and educators. Members of the staff of Illinois College have been the chief contributors to this series of talks thus far. The last talk, just before the holidays, was given by Professor Frederick B. Oxley. Some of the boys are still imitating the "Custer of the East," which Professor Oxley described in his interesting talk. An extension of the series is being planned to begin next week, and speakers will be solicited from all local educational institutions as well as from other social and business organizations.

The other officers were: Vice-president—Mrs. Ethel Swain; Secretary—Mrs. Kate Brown; Treasurer—Mrs. Mae Hunt.

At the close of the meeting the hostess served delicious refreshments. Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Denton, Esther Ward and Ruth Brown. The next meeting will be held Jan. 9 with Mrs. Beaumeister.
